

Explore Program

A strategy to reduce domestic violence.

About Our Explore program:

The Explore program provides domestic violence offenders with the information and skills they need to change their behaviors and improve their current and future relationships.

The program is a 26-session psycho-educational group intervention aimed at increasing offender accountability and victim safety. The service emphasizes peer confrontation, skills training and education and includes:

- 90-minute weekly group sessions targeting domestic violence issues
- Collaboration with a network of local emergency and support services for those affected by domestic violence
- Referrals for other services as necessary

We serve adults in:

Bristol, Greater New Britain and Greater Hartford
