

LifeLine

Empowering women and their families.

About LifeLine:

LifeLine for women and children is a substance abuse/mental health treatment program for women ages 16 years and older and is designed to treat and support women experiencing substance abuse and psychiatric disorders as they progress through their recovery. LifeLine specializes in treatment that empowers women to make positive choices for themselves and their children and to develop competence in all aspects of family life.

The program also provides intensive outpatient and outpatient levels of care and includes transportation within New Britain, babysitting for preschool-aged children and case management.

Treatment helps individuals:

- Stop or reduce substance abuse
- Improve parenting skills
- Cope with anxiety and depression
- Connect with community supports

We serve women 16 years or older in New Britain.
