

Notice of Non-Discrimination and Availability of Language & Communication Services

DISCRIMINATION IS AGAINST THE LAW - Wheeler does not exclude, treat differently, or discriminate against individuals in a manner which violates Federal civil rights laws. Wheeler respects the rights of individuals to be treated without regard to race, color, religion, language, sex, age, national origin, ancestry, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity, lawful source of income, or mental/physical disability.

Wheeler provides reasonable modifications for people with disabilities. In order to ensure equal access to care and effective communication, Wheeler provides: 1) free and timely aids to people with disabilities including but not limited to: qualified sign language interpreters, information in writing or large print, captioning, and other auxiliary aids, and 2) free and timely qualified foreign language interpreters and translated materials.

If you need these services, please notify a Wheeler staff member or call Wheeler's Navigation Center at 860-793-3500.

If you believe that you have been discriminated against or your language or communication needs have not been appropriately addressed, you may express your concerns to a Wheeler staff member and/or Wheeler's Client Rights Officer, Linda Russo, by writing to 91 Northwest Drive, Plainville, CT 06062 or calling (860) 793-3199. You may also contact the Office of Civil Rights, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, 200 Independence Avenue, S.W. 509F, HHH Building, Washington, D.C. 20201, Voice phone (800) 368-1019, FAX (617) 565-3809, TDD (800) 537-7697.
